AWS IS YOU

When you first come to the University of Maryland, you are most likely confronted with new and different experiences, both academic and social; and, because of the size of the student body and of the campus, you may feel somewhat removed from many campus activities. AWS is your organization to help you belong to the campus. AWS is YOU—it is all the women students here at Maryland. Through AWS you can participate in various activities and have a chance to meet many college women on this campus and on others. You can develop and exert leadership ability and have the opportunity to govern yourself through the AWS judicial boards.

The purpose of this booklet is to introduce you to AWS. Information Please attempts to let you know just what AWS does on this campus and how you can participate in its activities.

THE ORGANIZATION OF AWS is based upon election and appointment. The president and executive council are elected from and by the entire body of women students. On the residence level, executive councils are elected by the girls in each dormitory. The standing committees and chairmanships of special programs are appointed offices and are staffed entirely by interested women students.

When positions are available for these appointed offices, advertisements are placed in the Diamondback, the school newspaper. You may pick up an application in the Student Union, in the Dean of Woman's office in the North Administration Building, or in your residence hall. You may also find out more information by contacting one of the many girls already active in AWS; she can tell what to do and whom to see.

The programs of AWS are numerous and varied. They offer many opportunities for leadership, participation, and enjoyment. If you are interested in working on any program, please contact the chairman.

BIG SISTER PROGRAM AND FRESHMAN COUNSELOR PROGRAM

An extra helping hand is extended by specially assigned upperclassmen to all freshmen and transfer students who enter Maryland. The dilemmas of a new school are explained so that all students may become acquainted with the problems and privileges of a large university. Whether you are a dorm-dweller or a commuter, the academic and social information available is definitely beneficial. During Orientation Week, Big Sister dinners and coke dates are arranged to help everyone to meet each other.

Chairmen: Commuters—Janet Bode, Delta Gamma

Dormitories—Ruth Rathgeber, Montgomery West

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

With the arrival of mistletoe, holly, and snowflakes, AWS and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity turn thoughts toward the more spiritual side of Christmas with their programs of carols, excerpts from religious works, and reading selections. Following the tableau of the Christmas story and the benediction, students from all dormitories, sororities, and fraternities go caroling throughout the campus, ending their singing at President Elkins' home.

Chairman: to be appointed

HOUSE DIRECTORS' RECEPTION

"Getting to know you" might well be the theme of this AWS affair. To promote more friendly relationships with the new and old house directors, a gathering, such as a tea or card party, is sponsored each year so that these "school-year mothers" may become better acquainted with AWS.

BRIDAL FAIR

Thoughts of orange blossoms and June weddings take precedence over campus life in the spring when nationally known companies, in conjunction with AWS, present displays of household goods and personal products—all appropriate for the soon-to-be bride. Trousseau fashions, china, crystal, silver, kitchen ware, and other items are arranged in special booths for the interest of all.

Chairmen: Judy Favier, Delta, Delta, Delta
Jean DeGaston, Kappa Alpha Theta

ORPHANS' PARTY

Returning to the days "when we were a couple of kids," students relive the carefree memories of their younger days while treating one of the area's orphanages to a special party or outing with favors, refreshments, and games. In union with Panhellenic Council, sororities, and dormitories, AWS makes special arrangements so that this event will be a day to be remembered by all the children.

Chairman: Marcia Sibley, Alpha Chi Omega

For information about programs for which chairmen have not yet been appointed, contact Claudia Miller, AWS president, Delta, Delta, Delta.

HONORARIES

Girls who have made outstanding contributions in some phase of University life are honored and recognized for their achievements by being tapped by one or more of the following honoraries. These honoraries recognize scholastic, social, leadership, and service accomplishments by women in all four classes. With the exception of Phi Kappa Phi, all are solely for women.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA

Alpha Lambda Delta offers an incentive to all freshman girls to maintain a high scholastic average. This group, composed of girls with a 3.5 average for their first semester or a 3.5 cumulative average for their first year, sponsors a lecture series on campus and offers the only free tutoring service for freshmen with the freshmen men's honorary. At their annual spring banquet, this honorary installs its new pledges.

DIADEM

Just a year old this past spring, Diadem honors outstanding junior women who have contributed to the University through scholarship and extracurricular activities. Sophomore women are tapped in the spring at the AWS Diadem Convocation. Diadem sponsors many events throughout the year, but their major services include ushering at school events and leading various groups which visit the University on tours.

PHI KAPPA PHI

Dedicated to the maintenance of unity and democracy in education, this group is composed of seniors in the upper 10% of their class and from all schools of the University. Each year at the spring banquet the graduating senior with the highest average receives a scholarship from this honorary.

DIAMOND

Sorority women with records of outstanding leadership and service to their sororities are eligible for membership in Diamond. Each sorority may have three active junior or senior members. Tapping is held each year at Harmony Hall and Interfraternity Sing. The members of this honorary serve as hostesses at various campus events.

MORTAR BOARD

LOOKING AROUND

Maryland's campus is big and its size is enough to scare any brave coed. But don't let it get you down. Since the campus is as big as it is, there is a lot which you can enjoy. Here's a quick look.

Each semester the National Symphony performs on campus. Folk singing has become quite a craze on college campuses, and Maryland has taken to hootenannies. Anyone with an urge to sing or listen or with an instrument to pluck is welcome. On the more serious side, the music department periodically presents musical recitals which anyone may attend. The English department offers a series of lectures concerning various aspects of literature. These lectures, delivered by members of the department who are specialists in their field, prove to be stimulating and educational.

You name it and the Student Union's probably got it! Five nights a week the Student Union features movies-old and new. A brand new bowling alley is waiting for student use. You can usually find one lecture in a series covering a wide range of topics. Finally, a record hop is held almost every week in the ballroom.

The big events of the year are always eagerly awaited and you'll find them worth waiting for. The four class proms offer a night of escape into a land of paper decorations, soft lights, and multiple forms of entertainment. SGA cultural events entertain the student body periodically throughout the year. Ferrante and Teicher and Miriam Makeba were among the guest artists this past year. The Canadian Ballet will be one performing group this coming year.

If you're ambitious and like to get into the thick of activities, Maryland's the place to do it. Committee memberships on the SGA, AWS, or in your own class are open to everyone. Notices of vacancies in these positions are published in the Diamondback along with information about applications. Students with a flair for writing are eagerly welcomed by the newspaper, yearbook, and magazine staffs. Religious groups are very active at Maryland and sponsor many group projects in addition to their regular weekly meetings. There is always something to keep you busy but it's not always advertised, so if you don't see it, ask!

are a sophomore, junior, or senior, is 10:30 p.m. on these same nights if you are a freshman, and is 12 midnight on Friday and Saturday nights for all women students, freshman-senior.

After leaving the dorm, you may not CHANGE your sign-out to an overnight unless your parents call to ask that you stay at home overnight.

Also, all women have free late leaves or overnights on the night preceding a one day holiday and on the nights closing all vacation periods.

LATENESS: A student who returns to her residence after her closing hour is considered late. Each women student has 10 emergency minutes before being penalized for lateness.

QUIET HOURS: Quiet hours have been established for the purpose of allowing you the proper atmosphere for studying. They are in effect all the time Monday through Friday except for the lunch hour, 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.; the dinner hour, 4:30 to 7:30 p.m.; and a half hour at night, 10:00 to 10:30 p.m. or 10:30 to 11:00 p.m., if the residence executive council approves.

GENERAL UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS

EARLY MORNING LEAVES: The earliest time you can leave the residence is 6 a.m. If a special situation arises which necessitates your leaving the residence before 6 a.m., you must secure permission from your head resident the day before you plan to leave.

SPECIAL LATE LEAVES: Special permission to return to the residence after your regular closing hours may be granted by your head resident for the purpose of attending cultural events, such as those held at Constitution Hall, National Theater, and Arena Stage. Arrangements for such special late leaves must be made 48 hours in advance except in cases of real emergency. Present your ticket to your head resident before you go; or, if this is impossible, give her your ticket stub upon returning from the event.

Automatic extension of closing hours will be granted for those attending special campus events, such as the following: Aqualiners Water Show, Band and University Orchestra concerts, Gymkana Show, Harmony Hall, Interfraternity Sing, Modern Dance Concerts, AWS Christmas Pageant, SGA cultural events, and basketball games. After the function is over, you are given 20 minutes to return to your residence. When you sign out for one of the above functions, you should indicate your closing hour as your expected return and write "special leave" above the expected return time.

Everyone will be granted 2 a.m. permissions the Saturday night of Homecoming. Everyone attending will be granted 2 a.m. permissions the night of the Sophomore Prom, the night of the Junior Prom, and the night of the Senior Ball.

Request for special leaves for campus events not listed should be taken to the AWS Dormitory Council or to Miss Billings two weeks in advance.

ORGANIZATION SPECIAL LATE LEAVES: Special late leaves for organizations, such as University Theater and Diamondback, must be cleared through the Dean of Women's Office. Requests should be made at least one week in advance by the secretary or head of the organization and a 2.0 minimum average for the previous semester is required.

Overnight leaves, such as choir trips, are also cleared through the Dean of Women's Office and requests should be made at least two weeks in advance.

MEN'S CALLING HOURS: See chart, page 21. Men who call for you at times earlier than those specified may wait for you in the lobby at the discretion of the head resident.

Hours for gentlemen callers in the RECREATION ROOM vary in individual residences but may begin no earlier than 1 p.m.

VISITING MEN'S RESIDENCES: Women may visit men's residences only when attending registered, chaperoned social functions.

VISITING A FRATERNITY: See chart for hours, page 21. Women students may attend only those functions registered on the University Social Calendar, which is sent to all residences by Friday of each week.

The housemother or an approved chaperone must be present at all times that co-eds are in the fraternity house. Before a member may bring a co-ed into the fraternity house, he must obtain permission from the housemother.

Desserts on week nights may last until 8 p.m.

GUESTS: A friend may spend the night in your residence on Friday and Saturday nights if your head resident agrees and if there is room for her. Because of similarities of interests and limited accommodations, these overnight guests should be of college age (i.e.—no younger than sixteen). There are no guest rooms in the residences for parents or other adults. Guests must be registered 24 hours in advance. Show your guest how to sign in and out and acquaint her with the residence customs. You are responsible for her and her infractions.

If a girl comes to visit you for the evening, i.e.—not overnight, she must leave the residence by the following times: Monday—9:45 p.m.; Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Sunday—11:30 p.m.; Friday and Saturday—12:45 a.m.

WEEKEND SIGN-OUT FOR DORM STUDENTS VISITING SORORITY HOUSES: Dormitory students visiting the sorority house for the weekend must sign out on their sign-out card in the dormitory and sign-in on a card in the sorority house. While at the sorority house, they must use this card for signing out at all times.

Dormitory students may not spend the night at the sorority house during the week.

FIRE DRILLS. Each residence is required to have a minimum of three fire drills a semester. When you hear the alarm, put on a long coat and a pair of shoes, leave your light on and your door open, and then walk quietly to your assigned exit.

SUN-BATHING: Sun-bathing is allowed only in those areas so specified by the Dean of Women's Office. You will be notified in the spring as to specific locations.

Sun-bathing is not permitted on sorority property except in enclosed areas which have been approved by the Panhellenic advisor. It is not permissible to sun-bathe on porches overlooking the town streets.

RESIDENCE DOORS: All doors except the front door must be kept locked after dark. They will remain locked until 7:30 a.m., the earliest one can enter the residence, and may not be used until this time.

RECEPTION LOBBIES may be used for studying after closing hours with the head resident's consent.

TELEPHONES ARE BUSY so limit your calls to three minutes. You may make and receive calls on campus from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on the hall phones. In case of an emergency which would require the use of these phones at other times than these hours, see your head resident or graduate assistant. All outside calls must be made on pay phones.

ROOM INSPECTION will be made once a week by your head resident or graduate assistant. For safety and health reasons these rules should be followed:

- 1) Food and dishes must not be taken from the Dining Hall.
- 2) Coke bottles must be returned to the cases provided for this purpose.
- 3) The only electrical appliances allowed in rooms are fans, hairdryers, electric clocks, radios, and phonographs.
- 4) Shades must be drawn after dark when lights are on.
- 5) Calling or talking from windows is prohibited.
- 6) Food must not be kept on window sills.
- 7) Food kept in rooms must be kept in metal containers with tight covers.
- 8) Only coffee, tea, or soup may be prepared in dorm kitchens, except in the event of a dorm party. Except for dorm party food, only milk, juice, or fruit may be kept in dorm refrigerators, and these articles must be plainly labelled with the name of the owner.

PLEASE KEEP YOUR ROOM LOCKED when you are not there. This is for your own protection.

PETS of any sort are not allowed in the residence.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES: Possession or use of alcoholic beverages, including light wines or beer, is prohibited on the campus, in any residence, or in any fraternity or sorority house.

According to Maryland state law it is unlawful to sell or furnish any alcoholic beverages at any time to a minor (i.e.—a person under 21 years of age) either for his own use or for the use of any other person.

At the beginning of each semester, a test will be given on these rules to all new women students in the residences.

A Glimpse of Your Future

"Everything educates, and some things educate more than others. Springtime educates, for example. So do sunsets, winters, poems, the ocean, plays, books, sounds, situations, people . . ."

Harold Taylor

The seer's crystal ball is not found in a dean's office, but I can hazard a fair guess without it and see an exciting few years ahead for each one of you! This guide book for freshmen, which has been worked on so enthusiastically by girls who are looking forward to your coming, should give you clues about the varied and wonderful life of a college woman. We hope that it will inspire you to make the best use of the experience of attending college which you so fortunately have been given.

Even if you use every minute of your four years to the fullest advantage, you will only have begun to learn all there is to know. The truly educated person is always eagerly looking for new insights, deeper knowledge, and more creative ideas; and he pursues knowledge as enthusiastically at seventy as he does at seventeen. Don't waste precious time but take advantage of the wealth of learning which a large university can offer. Become acquainted with your instructors and professors, go to fireside chats and lectures, make time for concerts in Ritchie Coliseum and art shows in the Student Union and plays at the University Theater. The fabulous city of Washington is right on our doorstep with its museums, art galleries, and theaters. Our own state of Maryland is full of places which evoke the colorful history of colonial days.

Your life as a student will be independent and constantly full of choices. It is up to you whether you spend your free hours idly, or whether you go exploring, take a walk, play tennis, listen to music, argue about philosophy, help to plan an activity, or read something beautiful or controversial or provocative. Attempt to branch out into ways which will make life constantly more enriching and rewarding.

I hope that your years in a university will help you to become increasingly aware of the value of honesty and integrity, kindness and tolerance, generosity and compassion. Enhance your life with good friendships, interesting activities, and intelligent studying. Every day may not be rosy, but courage, patience, and time will solve most problems, and you will find that there are many places to go for help and advice.

We are looking forward to welcoming you as the newest members of the University of Maryland and wish you every success. Good luck!
